Police say Stewart, armed with a semi-automatic; 40-caliber pistol fired several shots into the victim's car, apparently running from the passenger side to the driver's side while firing. In a previous incident, Stewart had pointed a gun at her when they argued over money being spent on children she had from a previous relationship. When deputies asked her why she waited a half day to report that incident, she told them "Because I loved him and I didn't want him to get in trouble." Stewart died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.	Shooter: Ronnie Odell Stewart, Jr. Bryant, AK	Jan 12	2 Killed (including shooter)
